

Greetings!

The first event in the DHRN Speaker Series was held at UBC Okanagan on January 29, 2010 in Kelowna. DHRN was pleased to host Dr. Tim Stainton, Professor of Social Work at UBC Vancouver to speak to a packed room with an attentive audience of academic researchers, university students, and Okanagan Valley community members. In his presentation, Dr. Stainton highlighted facts and issues related to the topic of Disability, Biotechnology, and the Right to Exist.

DHRN looks forward to the next events in the Speaker Series. Details are provided below. We hope you can attend!

Warm Regards,

Diane Reed, EdD
DHRN Director of Programs

Kickstart Festival - Configurations

A two-evening presentation is a dance double bill featuring internationally-acclaimed hip hop dance artist Bill Shannon performing Spatial Theory with guest DJ Excess, as well as choreographer Peggy Baker's Geometry of the Circle performed by Alison Denham and Mark Brose. Configurations closes with a Gala Fundraiser that will include a reception, silent auction and an addition to the double bill - special guest and Canadian modern dance legend Peggy Baker performing her work, Earthling.

Nerve Stimulation Guideline

A new guideline issued by the American Academy of Neurology finds that transcutaneous electric nerve stimulation (TENS), a widely used pain therapy involving a portable device, is not recommended to treat chronic low-back pain that has persisted for three months or longer, because research shows it is not effective. The guideline is published in the December 30, 2009, online issue of Neurology, the medical journal of the American Academy of Neurology
