The Disability Health Research Network (DHRN) and International Collaboration on Repair Discoveries (ICORD) are joining forces to cohost a trainee/graduate conference at ICORD's new location, the Blusson Spinal Cord Centre! The DHRN has invited exciting local & international keynote speakers, and will be hosting unique skill-building presentations about the importance of presentation skills in your graduate student/trainee experience and beyond!

Opportunities Galore!

Keynote Speaker Janice Ollerton, University of Western Sydney, Australia, "The Penrith Photo-voice Project" and inclusive disability research methods.

Keynote Speaker, Chris Molineux, Comedian and Public Speaking Coach, who will share his expertise in effective public speaking and public presentation skill-building, in research and community settings.

We are also inviting trainees/graduates to present posters, and join in the very popular Project Show & Tell - the One-Minute / One PowerPoint Slide Research Parade - tell us all about what you are working on!

Afternoon Workshop Sessions include:

Workshop #1 - "To Speak Well" - Public Speaking with Chris Molineux

Workshop #2 - "Making Your PowerPoint Really Deliver"

with PowerPoint Expert, Len Atwood

Facilitated-networking sessions for graduate students interested in disability health research to meet and share ideas across the disciplines as well as direct presentation and poster examination and discussion time.

United Nations Enable - The Division for Social Policy and Development of the United Nations Secretariat in New York is the focal point within the United Nations system on matters relating to disability. It is also the focal point for activities related to global social development, to youth, older persons and the family. The Division for Social Policy and Development works closely with major international non-governmental organizations dealing with disability issues and supports technical co-operation activities, which are jointly prepared with them. In addition, the Division organizes or collaborates in international expert meetings on disability matters. <http://www.un.org/esa/socdev/enable/>
